som," said the witness, "I remember hoping we would go to the Walderf, I had heard so much about it and wanted to go there. But the hansom stopped in front of a dingy-looking building in West Twenty-fourth Street, and I was told to get out. My mother had dressed me,
My skirts were just to my stoetops then.
This was in August, 1901.

"He was a big and fat, ugly man. I remember his meeting us at the head of three flights of stairs," she continued. "He gave me presents, and my mother let me go to other parties.
Then he said my mother should visit some friends in Pittsburg. She said she could not leave me. He said it would be all right; that he would look after me. Finally she went. Then came an invitation to a party, but no one else was there—just two. "They all seem to have turned us down," he said. After we had dined, and I wanted to go home, he said I hadn't seen all of the apartment, and we went to the bedroom, with the mirrors all over the walls.

"That room was a bedroom. On a

the walls.

"That room was a bedroom. On a small table stood a bottle of champagne and one glass. Mr. White pourced out just one glass for me, and I paid no attention to it. Mr. White went away, came back, and said: I decorated this room myself. Then he asked me why I was not drinking my champagne, and I said I did hot like it; it tasted bitter. But he persuaded me to drink it, and I did.

Drunk the Champagne

"A few moments after I had drunk the champagne there began a pounding and thumping in my ears, and the room got all black."

Mrs. Thaw was almost in tears at this aris, haw was almost in cears at this stage,

"When I awoke my clothes had been taken off. I started to scream, Mr. White threw a kimono on me, As I sat up I saw mirrors all around the room. I began to scream again, and Mr. White asked me to keep quiet. When he threw the kimono ever me he left the room. I screamed harder than ever. I don't remember how I got my clothes on. He took me home, and I sat up all night crying."

crying."

"Where was Mr. White when you recovered consciousness?"

"He was beside me."

"What did he say afterwards?"

"He made me swear that I would hever tell my mother. He said there was no use in talking, and the greatest thing in this world was not to get found out. He said the girls in the theatres were foolish to talk. He laughed afterwards."

"Was Mr. Thaw excited when you told him those things?" asked Mr. Delmas.

Thaw Renewed Offer to

Thaw Renewed Offer to Make Her His Wife. "Yes, he was excited, and walked up and down the room. We sat up all night. He said it wasn't my fault; that no one could blame me, and that I was only an unfortunate girl, and that he didn't think any the less of me; he would marry me, anyway."

"Did he offer to marry you again?"
"Yes, and I told him that if I did marry him the friends of Stanford White would laugh at him and hugh at me."
The witness said she told Thaw that it would not be well to marry on account of his family. He persisted that he

of his family, He persisted that he wished to marry her.

Mrs. Thaw declared Stanford White was at the Cafe Martin the night of the shooting. She and Thaw dined there and she saw White. Mrs. Thuw said the note she wrote her husband in Cafe Martin related to Stanford White. This evidence was inter-stricken out.

Mrs. Thaw gave testimony corroborating that of other witnesses as to the details of the shooting of Stanford White.

What Hawnend at

What Happened at

Madisan Square Roof Garden. Madisan Square Roof Garden.
Mrs. Thaw said that she sat in the sents with Mr. Truxton Beale and Mr.
McCaleb. Her husband wout to the back of the theatre, she said. He was away about fifteen minutes, when he returned and took a seat beside her.
"How long did he remain at your side?"
"About hair an hour."
"What was his manner then?"
"It seemed to be the same as ever."
"Did you talk about anything special then?"

"No, just general."
"Who suggested going away from the

"Did you hear shots fired?"

"Yes; immediately that I saw Mr.
White I heard the shots."
"How many shots?"

"Three shots."
"What did you say?"
"I said to Mr. McCaleb; 'I think he has shot him."
"Did Mr. Thaw come over to where you were?"
"Yes Lacket."

"Yes, I asked him what he had done.
He leaned over and kissed me and said:
I have probably saved your life."
"What happened then?"
"I left."
"You waste then

You said that you are the wife of the defendant?"

Married in Pittsburg at Home of Presbyterian Minister.

"In Pittsburg at the residence of Dr. McEwen, pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church."

Thus the story ran, with just here and there an interruption by Mr. Delmas to advise the girl to fix the dates of the various happenines, and always to tell just what she had told Harry Thaw when he asked her to become his wife. It was through the fact that she had "told everything to Harry" that she was permitted under the rules of law to give her story to the jury.

Thaw Pale, But Brave-Faced, Smiled at His Wife.

Thow sat pale, but brave-faced be-dde his counsel when his wife took the neck was a flat turned-down collar, such as little boys wear, caught together by a

The Itch Fiend

That is Salt Rheum or Eczema, -one of It comes in itching, burning, ooxing, drying, and scaling patches, on the face, head, hands, legs or body.

It cannot be cured by outward applications,-the blood must be rid of the Impurity to which it is due.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

lias cured the most persistent and diffi-suit cases. Accept no substitute for Bood's: no substitute acts like it.

"Berry's for Clothes."

P's for Pajamas, For comfort at night, And if there's a fire, And All Became Black. You're just "out of sight."

Pajamas, in silk French flannel, mercerized cotton, $1.25 up. All kinds of night clothes, day clothes, work and play At interestingly low

MEN'S & BOYS' OUTFITTERS

little black tie in front. Her hair, little black the in front. Her hair, braided and looped well down on her neck, was caught with a big black ribbori bow, the ends of which peeped out in dark relief from behind the cheeks that were pule at first, but Mounted crimson when she was told to give all the details of her experience with the man who fell a victim to her husband's nistol. pistol.

Dressed Quietly, as Usual,

But Unveiled for First Time. But Unveiled for First Time.

Mrs. Thaw were the flat blavk velvet hat, trimmed only with one little bunch of violets, which had become familiar as a part of her costume. She was unveiled, however, for the first time, and her youth and beauty were remarked by every one.

Masses of black hair waved beneath the velvet brim of her hat, and helped form the frame for the girlish face of almost perfectly moulded features.
The brown eyes looked through long black lashes; the brows were symmetrically arched.

black lashes; the brows were symmetrically arched.

In the sympathy-impelling story of the girl, the girlsh fascination of a voice of softest quality, yet ringing clear in enunciation, the court-room lost view of the prisoner. But when there came a halt in the girl's fight against the tears, the people who had gazed unceasingly at her lowered their eyes as if the relief from their stare might bring her the composure she finally won. Then they saw Harry Thaw again.

Thaw, Shaken by Sobs,

Buried Face in Hands Buried Face in Hands.

His whole frame shaking, he sat with his head buried in his hands, a handkerchief covering the eyes. Where the defendant sits he is all but shielded from the jury. Bent over the table as he sobbed he could not be seen at all.
Thus Thaw sat for many minutes, and when he finally lifted his head his eyes were red and swollen.

Even if they could have seen, the jurors would have had no eyes for the prisoner. They, too, had turned their gaze from the witness as the tears came to her voice, as well as her eyes, and each man of the twelve seemed intent upon some ob-relief this incident offered, although ncheon she had recovered from the tigue of the hours spent in the witness latigue of the hours spent in the whitess chalf during the morning session.

As she left the stand for the recess she walked unsteadily, and passing back of the jury-box, ron the fingers of her left hand along the wall, as a blind per-

Letters Written by Thaw

Corroborates Wife's Evidence. as corroborative of Mrs. Thaw's testimony to-day, which she often declared, in response to objection offered from time to time by the district attorney, was a repetition of the reasons she had given Thaw for refusing to become his wife. They also were offered us tending to show the state of mind of the defendant just after be had heard from her own lips the story of the girl he loved, and her relations with the man it is claimed he killed as a result of insanity inhorited in part and induced by a stress of circumstances.

The letters were written by Thaw to Mr. Longfellow, as his attorney. They told of his coming marriagy with Miss Nesbit, and of the "row they want to raise." Disconnected and jerky, jumping from subject to subject, they, nevertheless, breathe the love lie hore the girl, and he wanted, among other things, that provision should be made that, in the event of his death, all of his property should go to her. The letters constantly refer to "that blackguard" who poisoned her to her. The letters constantly refer "that blackguard" who poisoned her a girl, and say that her name was seely connected with two others be-les "that blackguard." Only two consisted with two others bese "that blackguard." Only two a baif dozen offered in evidence read during the afternoon session, others probably will be presented a court convenes to-morrow and that the bail of the stand.

Will Probably Consume Entire Day on Stand. The completion of the direct exami-nation of the prisoner's wife will pes-sibly require all of to-morrow's ses-sions. There is an impression that Mr. Delmas may strive to have it occupy the entire day, in order that the young woman may take advantage of the adjournment over Saturday and Sunday to recover from her fatigue and be prepared for the cross-examination of prepared for the cross-examination of District Attorney Jerome.

EVELYN THAW AND MAE MACKENZIE ON THE WAY TO COURT IN THE SNOW-DRIFTS

In testifying to-day, Mrs. Thaw was not allowed to state the names of certain persons, but by censent of counsel for defense, she gave them in whispers to Mr. Jerome, "in order," as Mr. Delmas said, "that the prosecution may have the fullest possible opportunity to refute any of her statements if he can."

White's Friends Slandered

"No. just general."
"No. just general."
"No. just general."
"They suggested going away from the garden."
"They suggested going away for the feeter camps of the afternon season the garden."
"They suggested going away for the feeter going and the wines."
"They suggested going away for the feeter going and the wines."
"They suggested for for the fore predent the garden."
"They suggested for for the fore predent the garden."
"They shall have hid new case for the feeter going and the garden."
"They shall have had th Thaw on Return from Europe and She Said He Never Lied,

"He looked very sad," she said, "and told me they had been making a fool of me. He said he understood why it was done. I afterwards got so many conflicting accounts from the persons who had told me the stories, and I heard their reputations were so bad, that I finally told Mr. Thaw I did not believe the stories, He said: "ou know I have never lied to you"—and he never has," she concluded.

The girl paid other tributes to her husband, to save whose life she braved all.

Corroborates Wife's Evidence. he letters which eventually were red in evidence, after much objection Mr. Jerome and a flood of argument opposing counsel during the aftern skiting of the court, are regarded corroborative of Mrs. Thaw's testing to-day, which she often declared, response to objection offered from

When Ill at School Thaw

Came and Sat Beside Her. Came and Sat Beside Her.

"Stanford White sent me to school in New Jersey in October, 1992, and early in 1903 I became Ill. The doctors said an operation was necessary. They told me I was very sick, but did not say what was the matter. Mr. Thaw came to see me and was the last person, except the doctors, whom I saw before being placed under the influence of an aesthette. He had been told it was dangerous for me to been told it was dangerous for me to talk. So he came in quietly and knelt down by the bed and kissed by hand, and looked at me for a moment and went out.
"When I recovered I found he had

"When I recovered I found he had made arrangements for my mother to take me abroat to recuperate. It was while we were in Paris on this trip that he proposed to me."

While the Thaw fory was on its way to court this morning a snow-shoveler in the street shouled: "Yote for Thaw!" He was promptly arrested and taken before Justice Fitzgerald in chambers, and allowed to go after a severe reprimend.

Harry Thaw's Letters Regarding Evelyn Nesbit.

Regarding Evelyn Nesbit.
The letter addressed to Attorney Longfellow, and which was offered to-day, as tending to show Thaw's frame of mind, was as follows:
"Mirs, N. insisted sailing New York
when her daughter left. I kept Mrs,
N. in London three months: cost over $1,000. Mrs, Nesbit sails to-morrow for New York. She thinks I kldhapped her 17 3-4-year-old daughter, Hefore she lands she will know that I have always done the best I could,

The child cannot be with her another, because when she was 15 2-3 years old she was ruined by a blackguard. Don't warry, but find out her address, Telephone Mrs. N., but not in your name. Ask her if she saw Mr. Thow abroad. As soon as she answers hang up the 'Noona'. abroad. As soon as she answers hang up the 'phone." On a slip of paper inclosed was written:

"If you can't read this don't worry,

"If you can't read this don't worry. Please telephone her incog and wire me at my expense,"

The letter was signed "H. K. T."

Another letter began "Dear Long-fellow," and said, among other things:

"Evelyn has left me six or seven letters and telegrams from the blackguard. If they wish to begin a row I am ready for it. I prefer to reach New York so as to go to Philadelphia and Pittsburg, and then to Port Huron in time for the wedding on November 18th. I would return to New York in time to meet Lady Yarmouth, who lands on the 24th. The more row, the better.

Mother Don't Count

WEATHER

Forecast: Virginia and North Caro-ina—Snow Priday; fresh, possibly risk, northwest winds; Saturday fair, Richman, CONDITIONS YESTERDAY. Average......241-2 lighest temperature yesterday.

CONDITIONS IN IMPORTANT CITIES.

(At 8 P. M., Eastern Time.)

Place Ther. H. T. Weather,

Ashaville, N. C. 22 28 Rain

Augusta 34 28 Cloudy | IMPORTANT CITIES, | Eastern | Time | Tree | The | Th nsas City ... ew Orleans. klahoma City ittsburg, Pa..

instead of him. She should never have remained on the stage so long and if they had listened to me she would not. It resulted in her name being falsely connected with two others besides that blackguard. Poor girl, she was polsoned when she was fifteen and three-fourths years old."

All His Property to Her.

"Remember that if I die my property is all to go to my wife, but in the event of her death must not go to her relatives. Her wretched mother must not receive anything. I would provide for her brother, butween, her brother, however.
"Poor girl! If J die she may not live

Faints When She Hears Daughter's Testimony Regarding White.

PITTSBURG, PA., February 7 .- Mrs. Charles J. Holman, mother of Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, is prostrated at er home, in Brookline, and to-night the attending physicians say that she is ir a most serious condition. Her collapse came after she had listened to the came after she had listened to the startling testimony given by her daughter as it was repeated to her over the telephone from a newspaper office connected by direct wire with the Crimmal Courts' building in New York.

When the story of Evelyn's confession to Harry Thaw of Stanford White's treatment of her came over the wires Mrs. Holman became very nervous, and the reporter, who was talking to her, was frequently interrupted by exclama-was frequently interrupted by exclama-tions of "This is horrible!" and finally there was a shrick of anguish.

A moment later a maid at the Holman home called over the wire that Mrs. Hol-man had fainted and that they did not desire to hear any further news.

LONDON INTERESTED IN THE THAW CASE LONDON, February 8.—The case of Harry K. Thaw is attracting almost as much interest here as in the United States. The newspapers this morning publish many columns of the evidence given vesterias.

Coal-Dealers Are Busy.

Norfolk Va. 26 26 Cloudy
Tampa, Fig. 51 58 Clear
Vicksburg 44 50 Clear
Washington 29 25 P. cloudy
Wilmington 34 28 Cloudy
Wilmington 35 28 Clear
Wellowstone 32 38 Clear
MINIATURE ALMANAC.
Bun rises 7:09 High Tible.
Sun rises 7:09 High Tible fact that the coal dealers or many of them are unable to fill their numerous orders for fuel promptly. This is partiall due to two causes. Many persons neglected to replenish their supply until the fact that the coal dealers or many of them are unable to fill the fact that the coal dealers or many of them are unable to fill the fact that the coal dealers or many of them are unable to fill the fact that the coal dealers or many of them are unable to fill the fact that the coal dealers or many of them are unable to fill the fact that the coal dealers or many of them are unable to fill their numerous orders for fuel or sun and the them the phones were kept busy at coal yards, everybody want

NEWS GATHERED LONG WINS THE FROM SOUTHSIDE PRELIMINA

Street Committee, Building and Guy Hooker Finishes Only a Few Land Committee Hold Interesting Meetings.

MR. SHANKS PASSES AWAY

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street,

At the meeting of the Building and At the meeting of the Busians and Land Committee last night the question of discussion was whether or not the land between First and Second Streets en Stockton Streets, where the Southern Oil Company desires to creet a structure, belongs to the city. City Attorney Page said that he examined the records of former years carefully, and as far as he could see, the title was complete. It was reported at the meeting last night that the Southern Railway inserts a claim on this property. After further statements were considered, Mr. Page told Mr. C. H. Mahler, who represented the Southern Oil Company, that the latter could address the railway company in Washington, stating he heard they had made a claim on this piece of land, and, if so, inform him of the nature of its source. The amendment offered by Mr. J. W. Moore that the matter be deferred until Mr. Mahler receives communication from the company's officials in Washington was adopted.

The dimensions of the lot are 165 feet on the northeast corner of First and Stockton Streets and 196 feet on Stockton Street. Land Committee last night the question and the body got down to work at once.

Street Committee. Upon the adjournment of the Building and Laud Committee, Chalrman Patram rapped the Street Committee to order and the body got down to work at once.

The city engineer and the contractors were present and stated that the reason the work on pavements did not proceed was the lack of material. The contracts were made in 1995, but owing to this deficiency, the work could not be done. Mr. Tony's motion to defer the matter until next meeting was adopted.

The proposition to grant a permit to the Standard Oil Company for the extension of a sidetrack to the present side-track connecting with the Souhern Railway to cross Stockton Street into their own yard was passed without opposition.

Annual Budget

The following is the annual budget own yard was passed without opposition.

Annual Budget

The following is the annual budget appropriating $68,583.07 for the expenses of the city for the ensuing term, as adopted by the Finance Committee Wednesday night, together with the increase in each item over last year:

Interests on general bonds, $15,495, an increase of $607.50; interest on water; bonds, $6,790, no increase; streets generally, $10,000, an increase of $780; judges salary, $1,000, no increase; of $2,732; officers' salary, $4,780, an increase of $780; judges' salary, $1,000, no increase; of $136; judges' salary, $2,253, an increase of $336; almishouse, $2,253, an increase of $336; almishouse, $2,428, an increase of $336; almishouse, $2,428, an increase; of $128; outside poor, $400, no increase; thealth Conumittee, $2,700, an increase; if lealth Conumittee, $2,700, an increase; of $1,546; elections, $300, no increase; contacty; $1,800, no increase; sinking fund, $2,610, an increase; sinking fund, $2,610, an increase; sinking fund, $2,610, an increase; slinking fund, $2,610, an increase; shoots, $447, a decrease of $34,15.67.

The budget as adopted will go to the City Council to-night and the Board of Addermen Tuesday night.

Mr. Shanks Passes Away. Mr. A. I. Sampson, of No. 1415 Perry Street, received a telegram yesterday afternoon announcing the death of his friend, Mr. & dam G. Shanks, of this city, Mr. Shanks had been in bad health since January 6th and went to stay with his father in the country, where he died yesterday morning. The telegram asked that the following societies be notified: Juniors, Daughters of Liberty, Patriotic Sons of America and Brotherhood Railway Carmen of America. Mr. Shanks was treasurer of Rocky Ridge Council, No. 25, Jr. O. U. A. M., and a committee from that society will leave this morning to attend the funeral, which will take place at Amelia Courthouse this afternoon at 1 o'clock. The following is the committee: Messrs, A. L. Sampson, H. H. Meredith, W. E. Bowman and H. E. Wilson, Mr. Shanks had been connected with the Richmond Woodwork Company for many years. Mr. A. I. Sampson, of No. 1415 Per been connected with the Richmond Woodwork Company for many years.

The funeral of Miss Lennie Tennellie, who died Wednesday night at the residence of her brother, Mr. Harry Tennellie, No. 12 East Twelfth Street, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock from Central M. E. Church, The interment will be made in Maury Cemetery.

The funeral of Mr. John Lawrence Payne, who died yesterday metring at 5 o'clock at the residence of his father, No. 1703 Hull Street, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Sergeant Wright Resigns,

Sergeant Wright Resigns. Sergeant Wright Resigns, Sorgeant Alex S, Wright, who has held the position of office clerk of the Police Court for eleven years, has tendered his resignation. His successor, City Sergeant J, G. Saunders, will assume the duties of clerk of the Mayor's court on the retirement of Mr.
Wright. Wright.

Official Notification.

Official Notification.

Professor George Carrington Moseley, principal of Manchester High School, yesterday received a letter from Mr. R. W. Price, secretary of the University of Virginia, stating that he was directed by the president of the institution to say that he will send to Mr. Moseley within the next few days an official notification of the accrediting by this institution of Manchester High School. This citation carries, with it a scholarship in either the college or the graduate department of the University of Virginia.

To-day the examinations in the high and primary schools will end, and Monday morning at 5 o'clock the pupils will know their standings.

Masons to Meet.

Masons to Meet. Manchester Chapter, No. 48 Royal Arch Masons, will hold their stated con-vocation in the Temple at 7:39 o'clock to-night. After the meeting refreshments will be served.

Personals and Briefs.

Personals and Briefs.

Dr. J. W. Broadnax, who some time ago moved from No. 15 West Seventh Street, lias removed to his former office.

The meeting of the Water Commissioniers and the Committee on Clear Water will be held Monday night.

Mr. Kirby, of the Atlantic Coast Line yard office, in Manchester, left last night for Wilmington, N. C.

N. R. Nunnally, white, and Eldridge Binford, colored, appeared before Mayor Maurica yesterday morning for fighting. The Mayor fined such $250.

The January term of the Corporation Court of Manchester adjourned yesterday. The February term will open on the 18th.

Next Tuesday night the Ludies' Ald Society of the Sacred Heart Church will give a tea in the school building at 8 o'clock.

Feet Behind the Leader.

RACE WAS VERY EXCITING

Second Preliminary to Occur To-Night-New Pictures and Ader Trio Also to Be Shown.

In one of the prettiest races yet run in the week's series the two-mile class-lifeation contest at the big rink at idle-wood last night afforded a-large crowd of racing enthusiants an opportunity to see a fast field run a race that abounded in excitement at every turn. Lung, the Baltimore crack skater, took the lead shortly after the start and although Guy Hooker pushed him hard the entire distance, he leid his advantage and finished a winner with Hooker about two feet behid him. Mitchell, of Portsmouth, was third, with the regalader of the Beld, including Pollard, Knowles, Fennerman and Corbett, following with the test of the contraction of the service of t

Rhowles, remerinan and Corbett, lowing,
The fight between Lang and Hooker was close, and the crowd yelled for the local boy, but while he was within a foot of his fast opponent, he could not got by.

To-night another fast two-mile contest will be pulled off, the first two contestant to enter the final on Saturday night with Lang and Hooker for the final two-mile championship.

The time of last pight's contest was considered very fast—6:30 for twenty-six laps and 160 feet over.

LONG COMING BACK.

Big Twirler Sends Regards to All His Friends.

All His Friends.

Manager Charlie Shaffer received yesterday the signed control of Long, one of the star pitchers of last year's team of Lawmakers.

Long said that he woul be glad to return to the Richmond aggregation, and that he would be on hand early in the season to get himself in trim with the rest of the men. The great pitcher wished to be remembered to all his former associates, to the press members, and to all his other friends.

The Lawmakers will not have many new men; but they are all good ones. Two new outfickers, two new infielders, a twirler or two, and a catcher compose the lot. But with the best of these and the best of last year's aggregation, Manager Shaffer is hoping to get great results.

POLICE ARE LOOKING

FOLICE ARE EUUNING
FOR JESSE BURLESON
[Special to Tile Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, TENN., February 7.—Jesse Burleson, white and twenty-seven years old, is charged with killing a man near Altapass, in Western North Carolina, this week, and made his escape, coming to Bristol. He was seen here yesterday, but the officers have been unside to locate him.

Eminent Doctor to Speak. Dr. J. M. McCormick, of Bowling Green Ky, will speak in Richmond on March 2nd at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. Dr. Me-Cormick, who is one of the prominent medical men of the country, devotes his time to discussion of matters pertaining to medicine and the public welfare. Governor Swanson will introduce the speaker, whose address in Eichmond will speaker, whose address in Richmond will be especially to medical students. August Belmont Donates Stallion LEXINGTON, KY, February 7,—August Belmont, chalifman of the Jockey Club, has notified Jouetta Shouse, segretary of the Kentucky Breeding Bureau, that he would donate a stallion for public service in the State.

Lyons Perfect Judge of Time. Harry Lyons, the new first Heutenant of the New York Athletic Club, in his cinder path days was known as a perfect judge. Lyons could run any of the standard distances and then guess to within a fifth of a second at the time he had made. Lon Myers, the world's greatest runner, possessed the same faculty.

Brothers on Rival Teams. Two of the Delahanty boys will play in the American League next season— Frank with New York and Jim with St.

Bignature

This bank pays special attention to the accounts of women.

Courteous, affable and always willing. Any member of our clerical force will at any time impart information and instruct to the best of their ability on any matter pertaining to finance.

Three per cent, compound interest . It is never too late to learn to save.

Safe, sound and sure tells you something about this bank. Planters National Bank,

Savings Department, RICHMOND, VA. Capital, - $300,000

Surplus & Profits, - $1,000,000